

OPEN ORDER REPORTS

Your partners in productivity, profitability and growth.

Open Order Reports sent right to your desktop.

When you have a large number of purchase orders placed with a supplier, it can be difficult to keep track of them all. What items and what volumes have I ordered for my business? When will my stock be ready? With Avery Dennison, it's easy keeping track of your purchasing requests with a new Open Order reporting system. This process will automatically e-mail you a list of all outstanding orders you have in our system.

Your Advantages

- Greater visibility of the status of your orders allowing you to identify when your stock will be delivered, allowing you to schedule work accordingly.
- Clearly identifies when orders were placed enabling you to track our performance against your requirements.
- Can be sent to multiple people – keeping everyone in your business informed.
- Aids in identifying potential problems before they occur.

Our Service

The Open Order report will provide you with the following information:

- Your purchase order number.
- Avery Dennison sales order number.
- The item that has been ordered.
- The volume that has been ordered.
- The date the order was entered.
- The date the order will despatch.
- The date the stock will arrive at your business.
